Day 1

Arrive in Bangkok and spend the remainder of the day at your leisure. At sunset, board the Chao Phraya Princess Cruise and experience a luxurious two-hour river cruise.

The Bangkok city skyline in the evening

The scenery along the riverbanks includes famous historical structures and religious monasteries such as the Royal Grand Palace (Wat Pra Kaew), Wat Arun (Temple of the Dawn), Bangkhunprom Palace, Kalyanamitr Temple and the Rama 8 Bridge.

Day 2

Visit Dream World - it is Thailand's version of Disney World.

Dream World in Bangkok

This theme park has a myriad of attractions and 30 exhilarating rides, cable cars, entertainment shows, beautifully landscaped gardens, pools, castles and fine restaurants which will keep the young and the young at heart engrossed in a world of fun and excitement.

Day 3

Visit Safari World, an incredible open zoo and leisure park with hundreds of animals from all over the world.

Rhinos at SafariWorld Bangkok

Activities and shows include safari drives, close encounters with beautiful dolphins, wildlife feeding shows, animal shows with white tigers, Jungle Cruise river rides, crocodile gardens, a tropical rainforest aviary and to top it all off, a spectacular, fast-paced stunt show.

Day 4

Enjoy a day at the tropical beach city of Pattaya. The beautiful beaches of Koh Larn - an idyllic island located just west of Pattaya - is a must-see location when visiting Thailand.
